Type of membership (please tick as applicable)

Every membership application is reviewed by the Executive Board and, if approved, accepted on a probationary basis for 12 months. Details of the admission procedure and of members' rights and obligations are set out in the Statutes.

- ☐ Full member (annual fee € 300.00 + one-time enrolment fee € 100.00): Open only to natural persons who hold an unrestricted certificate of competence to practise as a professional detective under the Austrian Trade Act (Gewerbeordnung), issued by the competent Austrian authority, and who work in this trade as self-employed or employed persons in Austria.
- ☐ Associate member (annual fee € 150.00 + one-time enrolment fee € 100.00): Open only to natural persons employed by a company that meets the valid requirements for practising the professional detective trade in Austria; persons who meet the requirements for full membership only insofar as they hold a restricted trade licence, or who hold a certificate of competence from the competent Austrian authority but do not work as professional detectives in Austria; and companies that practise the professional detective trade and have appointed a managing director under trade law.
- ☐ International member (annual fee € 150.00 + one-time enrolment fee € 100.00): Open to natural persons working abroad who, by virtue of their activity, belong or are closely related to the detective profession and do not hold a certificate of competence to practise as a professional detective under Austrian law.
- ☐ Supporting member (annual fee € 150.00 + one-time enrolment fee € 100.00): Open to natural or legal persons who are closely related to the professional detective profession and support the aims of the ÖDV, e.g. lawyers, criminal defence attorneys, court-certified experts, IT forensic specialists, cybersecurity and information security experts, compliance and due diligence specialists, auditors, security consultants and security experts, data protection professionals, and specialists in insurance and loss investigations.

The membership fee is due on 1 January each year and payable by 31 March of that year at the latest. The enrolment fee is payable once upon admission.

- ☐ I confirm that the information provided is correct and accept the Statutes of the ÖDV. I consent to the ÖDV processing and storing my data for the purpose of handling this application and administering the membership in accordance with the GDPR; I may withdraw this consent in writing at any time.
